Central Community Development Institute

LED is proud to be the presenting sponsor for the Bossier Chamber of Commerce's new initiative, the Community Development Institute (CDI). CDI is designed to build the capacity of individuals and communities to positively impact economic and social development. The program is a partnership between CDI Central at the University of Central Arkansas and the Bossier Chamber of Commerce.

Participants will move through the three-week training program in a cohort and be exposed to a comprehensive, applied approach to the field of community and economic development.

Courses will be led by development professionals from the corporate, academic, nonprofit and government sectors from north Louisiana and the mid-South. Sessions will be delivered through various active learning formats, including a combination of lecture, small group discussions, simulations and individual projects.
