BAGWELL: 15 I totally understand. 16 CHAIRMAN JONES: 17 If they tell me, we're trying to work 18 with him and we won't do it, that tells me a 19 lot on how they feel about the noncompliance 20 issues. And, obviously, what's going on here 21 and, again, just so people remember what was 22 going on in 2021 and '22, it was not — it's 18 issues during that time period largely because  19 I over the Jobs, Day is us this pary list of the piobs, So it looks like it's not just the number of jobs, but it's the wages per 22 job. And I'm just wondering if there will be 23 and her jobs, So it looks like it's not just the number of jobs, but it's the wages per 24 on the jobs, So it looks like it's not just the number of jobs, but it's the wages per 25 on the jobs, So it looks like it's not just the number of jobs, but it's the wages per 26 on the jobs, So it looks like it's not just the number of jobs, but it's the wages per 27 on the jobs, So it looks like it's not just the number of jobs, but it's the wages per 28 job. And I'm just wondering if there will be 29 a little bit of clarity around that. I mean, post of the rewill be a little bit of clarity around that. I we're talking about 95,000 average payroll per 29 person for the plan versus 40,000 in actuals. 20 CHAIRMAN JONES: 21 we'r		*		1 - 1
19 Okay. All right. That's an excellent point actually. Mr. Bagwell, you would 20 understand that? 21 understand that? 22 MR. BAGWELL: 22 MR. BAGWELL: 23 I'm sorry. I didn't understand that. 24 CHAIRMAN JONES: 25 Okay. So what she's saying is you had Page 50 25 Okay. So what she's saying is you had 26 Page 50 26 Okay. So what she's saying is you had 27 penalize for those noncompliances that, you 38 know, once we take an action. 4 MR. BAGWELL: 4 Good question. 4 MR. BAGWELL: 4 Good question. 4 What, frankly, I'm hopeful for is that you can 27 perach a viable agreement with the School Board 28 on that it makes our decision much clearer. 29 no, we're just not going to work with him, 21 totally understand. 21 It totally understand. 21 It totally understand. 22 in the number of jobs, but it's the wages per job. And I'm just wondering if there will be a little bit of clarity around that. 6	they could say, no, we're tired of waiting, I	6	I just didn't want us to inadvertently
7	want you to terminate the contract. That	7	create a trap for businesses that participated
8	could happen, absolutely that could happen.	8	that maybe fell short of the jobs. That's it.
9	But, frankly, ever since we've had local	9	Thank you.
10	input, that's always been a possibility.	10	CHAIRMAN JONES:
11	MR. REMEDIES:	11	No. And, thankfully, we'll be shortly
12	But in this case, The School Board	12	getting out of the jobs and payroll business
13	requested that they go back. Was that the	13	all together.
14	request of The School Board, that they assess	14	MS. JOHNSON:
15	them for all of the taxes that they	15	I do also want to say, the Board has the 16	MS. JOHNSON:	16	right to say that the contract is canceled as
17	It just says that they further reserve	17	of X date. So rather than go back to the
18	the right, all right to collect the amount of	18	beginning of the contract, you could request
19	taxes that they were exempted for the years	19	or you could make a motion to cancel it
20	2020, 2021, and 2022.	20	starting 12/31/23.
21	MR. REMEDIES:	21	CHAIRMAN JONES:
22	That was my concern.	22	Yeah, we have a lot of power to protect
23	CHAIRMAN JONES:	23	against that sort of thing. Again, in
24	What that is saying there is if we were	24	compliance situations, everything we get from
25	to terminate the contract for noncompliance,	25	the local government is a recommendation.
1	which is within our power to do	1	We're not bound by what the local governments
2	MR. REMEDIES:	2	want us to do in response to noncompliance
3	Yes.	3	issues. That's totally within the providence
4	CHAIRMAN JONES:	4	of this Board, but we listen to them. And
5	then they have all of the taxes	5	that's why I say, when the local government
6	were never assessed. But if we terminate the	6	defers to us, in my world that they're telling
7	contract, it will be terminated all the way	7	me, we don't care, you all do what you want
8	back to its beginning. So they would have the	8	to, which in my world says, you must not
9	right to collect taxes that have never been	9	must not be bothering you too much, so I'm not
10	collected, so that would be a right.	10	going to penalize them.
11	MS. JOHNSON:	11	So I've tried to send a message through
12	The Exhibit A also allows locals to	12	this Board and through the previous Boards
13	assess a default payment if they don't want to	13	trying to send a message very strongly, if
14	go, to the company, if they don't want to go	14	local government takes no action or defers to
15	through this whole process.	15	the Board, and that means that we're not going
16	CHAIRMAN JONES:	16	to penalize. That's been our practice. It
17	Yeah. Yeah.	17	doesn't have to be, but that has been our
1	MR. REMEDIES:	18	practice.
18	WIK. KEWIEDIES.	10	-
19	Okay. I'm just looking to be fair to	19	So, Mr. Bagwell, I think that what you're

1 proposal, or if they have a counterproposal, 1 requested by participating companies: 2 2 but whatever, we will take their comments and 1. Prior to consideration by this Board 3 3 then we will figure out where we are. of whether to approve an ITEP participant's 4 Our goal, I think this goal is rapidly 4 amendment to an Exhibit A previously approved 5 5 deteriorating, our goal is to have the rules by the Board and participating local 6 ready by August, the August meeting, but we 6 governmental entities, the ITEP participant 7 have run into, frankly, it's summer and people 7 shall first obtain approval by resolution from 8 for whatever reason want to take vacations and 8 all of the participating local governmental 9 stuff. And so it's become much more difficult 9 entities or letter by participating sheriffs 10 to get a meeting where we can have a quorum 10 for any changes that would affect the 11 and have the kind of input we need. But 11 following terms and conditions of the Exhibit 12 nevertheless, the Committee is going to work 12 A's required by ITEP Rules 503(E) jobs, 13 13 payroll, or compliance terms or conditions: as expeditiously as possible.
